

Joseph Marshan

Phone: +61 452 765 881 (mobile)
Email: joseph.marshan@anu.edu.au
Homepage: jnmarshan@github.io

Research School of Economics
HW Arndt Building 25A,
Acton, ACT 2601, Australia

Education

Ph.D. Economics (cand.), Australian National University, 2024 (under examination).

Research interest: Labour economics, gender economics, development economics and poverty

Supervisory panel: Xin Meng (Chair), Firman Kartaadipoetra and Thomas Tao Yang

M.A Economics, Australian National University, 2015.

B.A. Economics, Universitas Indonesia, 2011.

Employments

Lecturer, University of Canberra, Canberra.

Jan. 2024 - now

Academic level B with education focus.

Short-term Consultant, The World Bank, Washington, D.C.

Jul. 2020 - Jun. 2023

East Asia Pacific Gender Innovation Lab (EAP GIL). Providing data construction and econometric analysis for study titled "Preschool Availability and Women's Employment: Evidence from Indonesia". Study is published at Journal of Economic Development and Cultural Change. Apr. 2020 - Feb. 2021

Office of Chief Economist of Middle East & North Africa Regional Office (MNACE). Provide data cleaning and developing research proposal. Assessing COVID-19 impacts on gender perceptions in 10 countries of Middle East and North Africa regions. Jul. 2021-Jun. 2023

Consultant, Asian Development Bank, Jakarta

Jul. 2020-Dec. 2020

Produce monitoring report of COVID-19 Active Response and Expenditure Support (CARES) Program. Provide Gender Monitoring Matrix assessment to National Budget.

Researcher, SMERU Research Institute

Sep. 2012-Feb. 2017

Provide quantitative analysis and policy brief for various projects. Develop research grants proposal.

Research Assistant, Harvard Kennedy School Indonesia Program, Jakarta

Jan. 2011-Sep. 2012

Supporting staff, National Development Planning (Bappenas), Jakarta

Oct. 2011-Dec. 2011

Provide technical and administrative supports for decentralization team.

Teaching Assistant (at ANU)

Case Studies in Applied Economic Analysis and Econometrics (PG)

2019, 2020

Econometric Methods and Modelling (PG)

2019, 2020

Applied Microeconometrics (PG)

2018

Microeconomics 2 (UG)

2017

Presentations

North East Universities Development Consortium (NEUDC), Harvard University.	2023
Labour Econometric Workshop (LEW), University of Technology Sydney.	2023
Australasian Development Economics Workshop (ADEW), Macquarie University.	2023
Asian & Australasian Society for Labor Economics (AASLE), University of Tokyo (virtual).	2022
Asian Economic Development Conference, ADB, Tokyo (virtual).	2022
Australia Conference for Economists (ACE), Perth (virtual).	2021
RSE PhD Workshop, Australian National University.	2019, 2020
ASSA Annual Meeting, Special Session in Social Economics, Chicago (virtual).	2020
Australian Gender Economics Workshops (AGEW), Queensland University of Technology.	2020
Asian & Australasian Society for Labor Economics (AASLE), National University of Singapore.	2019

Awards, Grants & Scholarship

Templeton World Charity Foundation (US$ 6,000).	2023
Asian Development Bank Institute Early Researcher (US$ 5,000).	2022
College of Business Economics Teaching Commendation for Tutoring.	2020
Chris Higgins Prize (AU$ 1,500).	2016
LPDP Scholarship. Master and Doctoral program.	2014, 2017

Research

Published work

Labour market effects of bushfires and floods in Australia: a gendered perspective. Economic Records Vol 98, Issue S1. September 2022.

Working Papers

Intergenerational link of women employment: Evidence from Indonesia. Thesis chapter.

Unlucky and scarred: Long-term consequences of labour market entry condition in Indonesia. Thesis chapter.

Trade and gendered labor outcomes: evidence from changing export demand in Indonesia. Co-author with Donny Pasaribu (CIPS) and Ridho Al-Izzati (SMERU). To be presented in 3rd Asian Economic Development Conference, Seoul, July 2024)

How has the COVID-19 Crisis Shifted the Traditional Gender Values in MENA-10? Co-author with Daniel Halim (World Bank) and Nazmul Chaudhury (World Bank). To be presented in SEHO Meeting, Singapore, May 2024)

Mother education and children's well-being: evidence from four Pacific countries. Co-author with Dyah Pritadrajati. ADBI Working Paper Series No.1390. May 2023.

Land of the (Un)Fair Go? Peer gender norms and gender gaps in the Australian labour market. Co-author with Josiah Hickson. TTPI Working Paper Vol 9/2023.

Prevalence of Child Marriage and Its Determinant among Young Woman in Indonesia. Co-author with Fajar Rakhmadi, & Mayang Rizky. SMERU Working Paper Series.

Book Chapter

Structural Transformation and the Release of Labor from Agriculture.. In Indonesia: Enhancing Productivity Through Quality Jobs 100–129. Asian Development Bank.

Research Reports

Poverty and Livelihood Map Indonesia. SMERU Research Institute

The Well-Being of Poor Children Left by Their Mothers who Become Migrant Workers: Case Study in Two Kabupaten in Indonesia. SMERU Research Institute

The Dynamics of Poor Women Livelihood: A Case Study amidst a Fuel Price Change. SMERU Research Institute

Skills

Software: STATA, L^AT_EX, QGIS, R, Ms. Office

Language: Indonesia (Native), English (Professional), Spanish (Basic)

References

Prof. Xin Meng
The Australian National University
Email: xin.meng@anu.edu.au

Prof. Benoit Freyens
University of Canberra
Email: Ben.Freyens@canberra.edu.au

Prof. Tue Gorgens
The Australian National University
Email: tue.gorgens@anu.edu.au

Daniel Halim
The World Bank
Email: dhalim@worldbank.org